

On March 22, the award-winning author David Adler will be visiting our students. David has been written over 200 fiction and non-fiction books for young readers for over thirty years. Among his many honors, in 2016 David received the prestigious Theodor Seuss Geisel Award which is given to the author(s) and illustrator(s) of the most distinguished American book for beginning readers published in English in the United States during the preceding year. The award is named for the world-renowned children’s author, Theodor Geisel, a.k.a. Dr. Seuss. In 2017, he will receive The Regina Medal, a literary award conferred annually by the U.S.-based Catholic Library Association. It recognizes one living person for "continued, distinguished contribution to children's literature".

Should you wish to purchase a book, to be autographed for your child or as a gift for someone else, please fill in the information below.
